

ESDA2010 CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

ISTANBUL: CITY OF CITIES (19:00, Monday, 12 July 2010)

A vivid portrait of Byzantium, Constantinople and Istanbul, known in antiquity as the "City of Cities". The life and arts of Byzantine Emperors and Ottoman Sultans and of modern Turkey. This program, full of fascinating legends, historical episodes and poetry, features more than a hundred colour slides depicting the excitement, architectural splendor and artistic creativity of the "Queen City".

Presented by Yıldız Kenter and Talat Halman, Text by Talat Halman

Yıldız Kenter is Turkey's prominent stage actress. Born in Istanbul to Turkish and British parents, she graduated from the Ankara State Conservatory, achieved early renown at the State Theatre (Ankara), and worked at New York's American Theatre Wing, Neighborhood Playhouse and Actor's Studio on a Rockefeller Fellowship. In the early sixties she established Turkey's leading independent theatre, Kent Players, with her brother Müşfik Kenter and husband Şükran Güngör. She has appeared in leading roles in more than one hundred plays ranging from Shakespeare to Neil Simon, Chekhov to Ayckbourn, Brecht to Arthur Miller.

Prof. Kenter has also directed nearly one hundred plays. She has performed almost everywhere in Turkey. Abroad, she has acted in the US, France, Britain, Russia, Finland, Denmark, and other countries. In 1981 she was given the honorary title of "State Artist." Since 1959 she has been a professor of drama and currently serves as Chairperson of the Department of Dramatic Arts at the State Conservatory, Istanbul University. She has won innumerable awards and honours including Italy's "Adelaide Ristori" prize and the Turkish President's Culture and Arts Award and was named "One of the World's Hundred Most Successful Women" by Finland's International Women's Organization. In December 2004, Hacettepe University conferred an honorary doctorate on her.

Talat Halman served as the first Minister of Culture of the Turkish Republic. Currently he is Professor and Chairman, Department of Turkish Literature and Dean of Humanities and Letters, Bilkent University. Formerly he was on the faculties of Columbia, Pennsylvania, and Princeton Universities for many years, and from 1986 to 1996, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Literatures at New York University. He served as Ambassador for Cultural Affairs and Turkey's Deputy Permanent Representative at the United Nations. He has published seventy books (including 12 collections of his own poetry in Turkish and English) and 3000 articles in Turkish and English. From 1991 to 1995, he served as an elected member of the UNESCO Executive Board in Paris. Currently he is President of the UNICEF Turkish National Committee, and chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Istanbul Foundation for Culture and Arts. He holds honorary doctorates from Boğaziçi and Ankara Universities.

Honors and awards include Distinguished Service Awards of the Turkish Academy of Sciences and the Turkish Foreign Ministry, and "Knight Grand Cross, G.B.E., The Most Excellent Order of the British Empire", (counterpart of "Sir") conferred on him by Queen Elizabeth II.
